TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2018

CIPRIANI 42ND STREET, NEW YORK CITY

PRESIDENT'S LETTER 2018

Good evening and welcome to the Femmy Gala, the Underfashion Club's annual dinner that recognizes and celebrates the significant achievements of Intimate Apparel Industry leaders worldwide! I would like to extend the heartiest of congratulations to this year's honorees, Target, Komar Intimates, Texco Hook & Eye Tape Ltd., and Donald R. Allen, Jr., all of whom exemplify innovative spirit and dedication to our industry!

2018 is a special year for the Club, as we celebrate our 60th Anniversary as a 501(c)(3) charitable organization providing extensive financial support for student scholarships, awards, internships and grants; AND recognize 60 Years of Lycra® Brand with a Diamond Jubilee Award.

As a fundraising event, the Femmy Gala serves a dual purpose: creating a venue for business and social interchange, and generating the monies that enable us to fulfill our charitable mission. We are proud of the extensive scholarship support that is given each year to intimate apparel students at the Fashion Institute of Technology and Parsons The New School For Design, fashion merchandising students at LIM College, graduating seniors from the High School of Art & Design and High School of Fashion Industries in New York City, and the Design and Architecture Senior High (DASH) School in Miami; and the continuing education of our own members.

There are now FOUR dedicated scholarship funds that have been established by generous contributors, with monies distributed each year to the best and brightest of intimate apparel students: The Mary Krug Memorial Scholarship Fund, Intimate Apparel Council Scholarship Fund, John Bowman Memorial Scholarship Fund and, most recently, the Eileen West Memorial Scholarship Fund.

At the time of her death in 2013, Mary Krug was Vice President and Division Merchandise Manager of Neiman Marcus Stores, and she left a great legacy in the countless buyers, assistant buyers and vendors that she trained and educated over the years. Established in 2014 by a group of industry executives, the Mary Krug Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to a fashion merchandising student at LIM College.

For many years, the Intimate Apparel Council was the organization responsible for setting the Intimate Apparel market dates in the United States. In 2015, the remaining officers of the IAC "passed the baton" to the Underfashion Club and we are honored to have been chosen to provide this most important service to the industry. The IAC also provided funding in aid of our mission of education and service in support of intimate apparel worldwide.

John Bowman, who died in March of 2016 after fighting a courageous battle with brain cancer, was a pioneer in the Intimate Apparel Industry, dedicating 27 years to the initial launch and success of Wacoal America and later as a partner at Dana-co LLC working with the Natori brand. Established in 2017 by John's industry friends, the John Bowman Memorial Scholarship is awarded annually to a fashion merchandising student.

In September of 2017 we lost an industry icon, famed designer and Femmy Lifetime Achievement Award recipient, Eileen West. The special insert in this year's journal is dedicated to Eileen, and we are honored to have been chosen to administer the scholarship fund, which bears her name and will keep her memory alive by providing much needed financial support to the most deserving of intimate apparel students for many years to come.

As part of our emphasis on the students who are our future, the Femmy Gala is hosting, for the 15th consecutive year, a design contest featuring garments designed by students from the Fashion Institute of Technology's Fashion Design program. This is a major undertaking for all involved and I particularly want to acknowledge the efforts of SAIG CoChairs, Suzanne Beck and Clelia Parisi, and FIT Faculty Liaison Anne Rutter.

Special thanks to design contest sponsors Clover Group International, Regina Miracle International and Stretchline Holdings for providing the cash awards that will be presented to tonight's contestants; to Eurovet and Curvexpo for providing roundtrip airfare, accommodations and complimentary admission to this July's Interfilie Paris/Salon International de la Lingerie for the 1st prize winner of the contest and; to Francesca Spinetta and Intima Magazine for featuring the top 3 winning designs in the August issue of Best of Intima.

Preparations for this 60th Anniversary celebration have been extensive. Sincere congratulations and thanks to Femmy Co-Chairs, Amy Bittner and Ann Deal, and the entire Femmy committee; and Outreach Vice President, Karen Bromley and Brand Oversight Chair, Erin Lynn.

For 60 years, the strength of the Underfashion Club has been the dedicated volunteers who work to make a difference in our industry and offer our members benefits that will enhance their knowledge, and their opportunity for advancement. Our Web Site, www.underfashionclub.org offers a wealth of information. Our Blog, "Insider," shines a spotlight on industry leaders and topics and provides trend direction! Our Programs inform and educate members and industry associates, and our Members-Only get-togethers provide fun opportunities to mix and mingle.

As I look back over the years of my presidency, I am struck by the dedication and time spent by my fellow officers and directors to fulfill our commitment to "Education today for a better industry tomorrow," and I would like to take this opportunity to say "thank you" to them, and all the members who have contributed to the success of the Underfashion Club, Inc.

VICTOR H. VEGA
PRESIDENT

THE UNDERFASHION CLUB, Inc.

In February of 1958, a group of 7 women professionals in the corset and brassiere industry filed to incorporate as the CORSET AND BRASSIERE WOMEN'S CLUB, INC. The first person to sign the Club's incorporation papers was its first president, Jean Gordon.

The Club's original purpose was to foster communication among women engaged in the corset and brassiere industry; to encourage their participation in all aspects of the industry through education and the dissemination of useful information; and to obtain greater recognition for the work of women in the industry.

In 1963, under the leadership of president Mercy Dobell, the Club changed its name to THE UNDERFASHION CLUB, INC. and hosted the first "FEMMY" Gala at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel. Now an annual event held at the landmark Cipriani 42nd Street, the FEMMY Gala celebrates and recognizes the achievements of Intimate Apparel industry leaders and generates the monies that enable the Club to fulfill its charitable mission.

In 1985, under the leadership of president Norma Reinhardt, the Club officially opened its membership to men (with the first male president, Ronald Ross elected in 1990,) and expanded its purposes to include the establishment and promotion of internship programs, scholarships, and the funding of courses related to fashion underwear at institutions of higher education. The primary beneficiaries of the Club's funding were students at the Fashion Institute of Technology and High School of Fashion Industries.

In 2004, the Club sponsored its first Student Design Contest featuring the work of Fashion Institute of Technology seniors with an intimate apparel specialization. Since 2006, the contest has been an integral part of the Femmy Gala, highlighting the Club's commitment to "education today for a better industry tomorrow," and providing significant cash awards to the winners, thanks to the generosity of companies such as Clover Group International, Regina Miracle International, and Stretchline Holdings Ltd.

In recent years, thanks to the Industry's support, the Club has been able to significantly increase its financial support of Fashion Institute of Technology students AND expand its scholarships, awards, internships and grants programs to benefit students at Parsons School of Design, LIM College, the High School of Fashion Industries, Design & Architecture Senior High School and the High School of Art & Design.

Today, The Underfashion Club, Inc. is the preeminent organization within the Intimate Apparel and Underwear Industry devoted to its health and vibrancy by supporting education to attract new talent to the industry; providing members with learning opportunities and enabling enrichment of member careers through professional growth; and providing leadership for the operation of the industry.

Companies such as Delta Galil, Gelmart International, KOMAR, The Natori Company, MAS Design, Vandale Industries and Wacoal America Inc. have long been supporters of the Club's internship program, and students who started as interns have found employment with these and other corporate industry leaders.

In the last ten years, the Club has provided over $1.2 million dollars in support of scholarships, awards, internships and grants programs for 200+ intimate apparel students with $550,000 in scholarships, $150,000 in internships, and $120,000 in awards and grants in the last five years alone.

We cannot know with certainty how many students receiving support from The Underfashion Club will ultimately join the Intimate Apparel Industry but, under the leadership of current president Victor Vega, we know that we are making an impact on talented students focusing on careers in our industry and the companies that benefit from our efforts. Perhaps our biggest contribution is that we have become the organization that keeps the industry together because of our focus on the students who are the industry's future.

KOMAR INTIMATES

Komar is a global leader in the design, sourcing, manufacturing and distribution of apparel. With a diverse portfolio of over 100 of owned, licensed and private label brands, headquarters in the US, a network of factories in twelve different countries and distribution centers in the US and Europe, Komar prides itself in maintaining an efficient, transparent and approachable style to business.

It's Komar's unique approach to business that has been paramount to its success. With a continued commitment to innovation, technology and corporate responsibility, the organization, as well as every team member, has profound expertise and a deep commitment to its brands and customers.

Established in 2010, Komar Intimates designs, produces and distributes bras, camisoles, panties and specialty pieces for women, teen and tween girls. The division has and continues to excel at producing varied tiers of products, paving the way for continual expansion.

The division services owned, licensed and private label brands. Owned brands include Le Mystere, On Gossamer, DreamFit, Saint Eve, Carole Hochman and Jane & Bleeker. Licensed brands are Ellen Tracy, Jones New York, Betsey Johnson, Simply Vera, Vera Wang and Breezies. Private label brands include Dillard's, JCPenney, J.Crew, Kohls, and QVC & Walmart.

Le Mystere, Komar Intimates premiere owned brand, is an example of how these dedicated teams work together to create a successful and leading brand in the industry. Founded in 1991, Le Mystere revolutionized intimate apparel by building a bra for comfort using modern innovations. To this day Le Mystere continues to lead the way in innovation, style and fit.

Accepting for Komar Intimates is the division President, Debby Gedney who joined the company in December of 2012. Debby has committed her 25+-year career to the intimate's industry. She began her career as an intimate apparel buyer for Macy's, followed by a position as Vice President of National Sales at Maidenform and then onto CEO of Biflex before joining Komar. It is evident by Debby's dedicated industry resume that her focus has always been to create exceptional, quality and on trend products that will ultimately make women look and feel their best. Alongside Debby is a team of 48 amazing Intimate apparel professionals who are committed to creating exceptional product for their customers and the industry.

DEBBY GEDNEY

TEXCO HOOK & EYE TAPE LTD.

TOMMY FUNG | CHAIRMAN, TEXCO GROUP

A native of Hong Kong, Mr. Fung received his B.Sc. Degree from the University of Western Ontario, Canada. He began his career in Canada's Ontario Ministry of Environment, followed by three years with the Ontario Cancer and Research Foundation. In 1986 he returned to Hong Kong to join Texco, his family's hook and eye business since 1969. The opportunity to learn from the ground up deepened his understanding of the industry and fueled his passion for innovation and customer appreciation.

Under Mr. Fung's leadership, Texco established its first hook and eye tape factory in Mainland China in 1989. Mr. Fung added warp knitting in 1993 and fabric capabilities with the opening of a dyeing and finishing factory in 2003, making Texco the world's one-stop supplier of products and services for the intimate apparel industry.

Continuing Mr. Fung's commitment to growth with purpose, Texco opened a hook and eye tape factory in Thailand in 2007 and in 2013 established a sales and marketing presence in the U.S. Today Texco is the world's largest manufacturer of hook and eye tape and a leading global supplier of specialty fabrics. Texco is currently preparing to open its first factory in Vietnam in late 2018.

Mr. Fung is married and the father of three children.

ROBERT L. KIRKWOOD

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD RECIPIENT

DONALD R. ALLEN, JR.

"I like to design a bra from the inside out. I am obsessed with comfort and try to redefine it with each new collection."

For Don Allen, bras are a family business. His father, Don Allen Sr. worked for Playtex for more than 25 years, and would involve his young son in his work. "As a teenager, my father would take me to the Milliken Breakfast show at the Waldorf Astoria. One could say it was my indoctrination into the Intimate Apparel Industry! Watching Ginger Rodgers dance around a washing machine, then swaddling herself in the newest wrinkle-free fabric was very exciting for a 15-year-old aspiring designer!"

Don followed in his father's footsteps and began his career at Playtex as a pattern grader, before joining Vassarrette where he was promoted to Designer.

In 1990, he joined Warner's designing for the Ungaro line before moving to designing for Valentino. It was during this time, he was promoted to VP of Creative Design contributing to brands including Warner's, Olga, Bodyslimmers, Calvin Klein, and Victoria's Secret.

Don then took a position at Victoria's Secret as Director of Core Brands.

In 2005 Don rejoined Warner's as VP of Creative Design. During the past 13 years Don has been involved with some of Warner's biggest successes; Elements of Bliss, This Is Not a Bra, Cloud 9, and No Side Effects. Don's creativity and passion to drive innovation has helped make this brand stand out as leaders of comfort, problem solutions, and fit. He has always aspired to follow the words of one of his mentors who told him: "Design a bra that a woman reaches for every day, and a bra she doesn't want to take off the minute she's home." Don strives to achieve this and believes comfort is no longer a feature but expected in every bra.

In 2013 Warnaco was acquired by PVH, a leader in the apparel industry with such iconic brands as Calvin Klein, Tommy Hilfiger, IZOD, and Van Heusen. Through the support and attention of PVH, Warner's has become a leader in Intimate Apparel. In 2016 Don assumed the role of VP Design & Product Innovation. His new focus is to drive innovation for all brands within the Underwear group.

Born in Hawaii, his family settled in upstate New York where he attended the State University of New York at Brockport, majoring in Theater Costume Design and Dance.

Currently living in NYC, Don's weekend passion is gardening at his home in the country.

"Throughout my career I have been lucky to work with the most talented people in the industry, I truly believe that a garment is never designed by one person; it takes an amazingly creative team to design what is perceived as the simplest of garments."

DONALD R. ALLEN, JR.

Scholarships Awards Internships Grants

The Underfashion Club, Inc. has just concluded another successful year, delivering on its mission to promote “education today for a better industry tomorrow.” We are proud of the scholarships and awards that are given each year to intimate apparel students at the Fashion Institute of Technology, LIM College, and Parsons The New School For Design; as well as graduating seniors from the High School of Art & Design and the High School of Fashion Industries in New York City, and the Design and Architecture Senior High (DASH) School in Miami.

The Underfashion Club is dedicated to the belief that the future depends on attracting and educating young people to the opportunities in our industry. As a means to this end, our scholarships provide substantial monetary support to students who pursue college-level, intimate apparel-related courses. Our internship program provides college students with the opportunity of working as interns for intimate apparel manufacturers, suppliers and retailers while continuing their education. As a result of this program, several graduates have entered our industry. It is our expectation that companies will hire more students based on the success of the current endeavor.

The Femmy Gala is the fundraising vehicle, which enables the Underfashion Club to support its extensive program of scholarships, awards, internships and grants. The Underfashion Club has also been fortunate in attracting a number of dedicated scholarship sponsors and internship providers. We are especially grateful to Clover Group International Ltd., Regina Miracle International Ltd., and Stretchline Holdings Ltd. for underwriting this year’s Student Design Contest.

If you or your company would be interested in sponsoring a summer intern, or providing additional scholarship opportunities, we would be most pleased to hear from you.

THE MARY KRUG MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Mary Krug was Vice President and Division Merchandise Manager for Neiman Marcus Stores, a division of Neiman Marcus Group.

Mary personified excellence, and she truly was the best of the best. When she died in 2013, Mary left a great legacy in the countless buyers, assistant buyers and vendors that she trained and educated over the years.

A group of industry executives – men and women who knew Mary well – committed to establish a scholarship in her memory for students of fashion merchandising. What began as a single scholarship is now a scholarship fund that will carry Mary's name and devotion to education years into the future.

Contributions to the fund continue to be collected, and you are welcome to add your financial support to this most worthy endeavor.

FOR MORE INFORMATION,
CONTACT THE UNDERFASHION CLUB OFFICE AT 845.758.6405;

INTRODUCING
MARY KRUG
MEMORIAL

KELSEY WHITE | LIM COLLEGE

Being a scholarship recipient last year and this year has made a world of difference for me academically and professionally. This most generous financial aid has allowed me to worry less about the cost of school and living in New York, so I can focus on the incredible learning opportunities available to me. This relief, added with the confidence gained by knowing I have the support of the Underfashion Club, has allowed me to truly get a jump start on my career.

In the past year, I completed a sales internship at Haddad Brands, a buying internship with Carolina Herrera, and have now been a buying assistant at Chanel for the past 6 months. LIM continues to allow me to apply myself to the fullest extent, and I love nothing more than fully immersing myself in my education and preparing myself for my career.

I plan to continue on my current path with passion and vigor. The retail industry is one that fascinates and excites me, and I am so excited to enter into a profession with brilliant and innovative peers such as those in the Underfashion Club.

Thank you so much for this incredible award!

THE JOHN BOWMAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP FUND

John L. Bowman, who died in March of 2016 after fighting a courageous battle with brain cancer, was a pioneer in the Intimate Apparel Industry.

He dedicated 27 years to the initial launch and success of Wacoal America and, later in his career, was a partner at Dana-co LLC working with the Natori brand.

He went on to establish John Bowman & Associates, where he provided his years of experience and expertise to numerous companies globally. He developed and built brands like he lived his life...never accepting that anything was impossible and always pushing forward despite the odds. His legacy is to be found in the success of so many industry professionals who benefitted from his mentoring.

The John Bowman Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in 2017 through the generous contributions of John's industry friends, will keep John's memory alive by providing much needed financial support to the most deserving of merchandising students.

INTRODUCING THE FIRST RECIPIENT OF THE JOHN BOWMAN MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

KENDRA LEHNER | LIM COLLEGE

As a young girl growing up in a small town outside of Salzburg, Austria, I never would have imagined living in New York City. When my family came to America 13 years ago, I could not even read or write in English, but now, it is incredibly humbling to see years of hard work begin to pay off. Studying at LIM College has opened up more opportunities to network, learn, and help others than I could have ever imagined, and I know that it is only through scholarship funds that I am able to continually work on further cultivating my academic and industry exposure. Not only have my studies allowed me to gain insight into how the industry functions, but I have also been able to obtain valuable hands-on internship experience.

For instance, my freshman year internship at Fashion Snoops was a launching pad for landing me at other positions at amazing companies such as Supima Cotton, Cotton Incorporated, Tommy Hilfiger, and the Smithee Group. In addition, I was able to use my marketing and research skills for community outreach by co-founding the Philanthropy Club, leading its marketing division, and volunteering abroad in Romania and Bulgaria this summer to help impoverished communities and assist them in SEO and marketing development. These learning experiences expanded my knowledge of the industry and pushed me to strive to succeed.

These industry and academic experiences have solidified my passion for branding, marketing, and communicating the vision of a company coupled with sustainable and ethical business practices. In the future, my goal is to combine my skills in trend research and brand marketing with sustainable fashion. None of these milestones would have been possible without the aid I am receiving from the Underfashion Club.

2018 DASH SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT

LEILA GORDON

Leila Gordon is a fashion design student at Design & Architecture Senior High who is passionate about working with fabric, textile experimentation, and 3D forms.

She used to live in a small town in northeastern Pennsylvania, surrounded by tall conifers and the open air, until her family moved all the way to vivacious Miami, Florida. The extreme contrast between her quiet hometown and the energetic life of Miami allowed her to develop an appreciation for the two drastically opposing environments, while expressing their individuality through design.

Leila's lingerie design project was inspired by the Futurism Art Movement of the 20th century and how it translates into 21st century fabrics, silhouettes, and design.

INTIMATE APPAREL MARKET WEEK CALENDAR 2018 – 2019 – 2020

The Underfashion Club is relied on for networking, ideas, information, and supporting the future of the industry with student scholarships, awards, internships and grants. The Underfashion Club is also responsible for setting the intimate apparel market week calendar. This is yet another way we are able to further support and engage our members and the intimate apparel marketplace.
